Commissioned research: Rovio – Solid Q3 report and additional colour on the game pipeline

Marketing material commissioned by Rovio

Rovio reported Q3 revenue 2% ahead of Infront consensus while adjusted EBIT exceeded consensus by 17%. Games gross bookings grew -7.2% y/y organically (-6.5% in Q2). The top-line beat was partly driven by FX, but also by strong performance by ABDB, which also contributed to high operating leverage. UA costs for Q3 were 21.3m (Nordea: 21.5m) at 28.7% of Games revenue after 27.5% in Q2 22 and 26.4% in Q3 21. Guidance for 2022 was slightly revised to reflect the FX tailwinds from the strong USD: Rovio expects revenue to be significantly higher and revenue in comparable FX somewhat higher y/y (previously strong top-line growth, consensus +11%) and lower adjusted EBIT (intact, consensus -10%) for 2022 y/y. UA costs for Q4 were guided to be 28-33% of Games revenue (new / Nordea: 28.8%), which signals a q/q uptick and solid KPIs for key games such as ABDB and AB2, we believe. The company is also opening a new studio in Barcelona. Additionally, Rovio provided more transparency to its development pipeline of 10 games, which looks promising although we believe to new global launches should be expected for Q4. At first take, we expect 2022 top-line estimates for consensus to increase slightly while EBIT should remain broadly unchanged due to the UA ramp up for Q4. Initially for 2023, we expect consensus to move up somewhat for both top-line and EBIT given that KPIs for key games seem to justify incremental investment at the moment.

Q3 2022 outcome

- Q3 revenue was 2% above Infront consensus estimates, growing by 8% y/y (+14% in Q2). Organically revenue grew by -5% y/y (-1% in Q2).
- Revenue from Games was 1% above our estimate, increasing by 8% y/y (+14% in Q2). Games revenue grew organically by xx% y/y (-6.5% in Q2).
- Adjusted EBIT of EUR 12.1m was 12% above consensus and 6% above our estimates. Adjusted EBIT margin stood at 15.6% compared to consensus of 13.6%.
- EPS was EUR 0.xx compared to consensus of EUR 0.10.

Games performance and commentary

- Games' gross bookings grew by 6% y/y and by -2% q/q.
- User acquisition (UA) investments at EUR 21.3m were slightly below our estimate of EUR 21.5m, i.e. 28.7% of Games revenue compared to 27.5% in Q2 2022 and 26.4% in Q3 2021.
- ABDB beat our booking estimate by 9%, whereas other games were in line or missed.

- Ruby Games (Hypercasual) brought EUR 2.5m of bookings compared to our estimate of EUR 4.1m. Hunter Assassin 2 continues to progress in soft launch with the addition of a real-time multiplayer mode and a deeper meta system.
- Rovio is opening a new studio in Barcelona in order to expand the talent pool in live operations and level design – an activity that is today widely outsourced. Recruitment is ongoing and we aim to hire 15 developers in the next 12 months.
- Rovio provided some additional transparency to its pipeline of 10 titles in development. It appears that Ruby Games is now developing two separate versions of the Hunter Assassin sequel, a single-player and a multi-player game. In addition, Ruby is developing two other games while accelerating its strategy shift from hypercasual to hybrid casual. Moomin: Puzzle and Design is progressing according to plan and entering the next phase3 of soft launch in early 2023. In addition, there are Angry Birds IP-base initiatives under works in Copenhagen, Montreal (cross-platform) and Toronto.

Guidance for 2022

- For 2022, Rovio now guides for reported revenue to be significantly higher and the revenue at comparable FX to be somewhat higher (consensus +11%). The previous guidance was strong top-line growth.
- The company continues to guide for EBIT to be lower y/y (consensus -10%).
- UA costs for Q4 guided for 28-33% of Games revenue (Nordea: 28.8%).

Fair value and sensitivity

We calculate our fair values by weighting DCF, DDM, SOTP, asset-based and other standard valuation methods. Our fair values are sensitive to changes in valuation assumptions, of which growth, margins, tax rates, working capital ratios, investment-to-sales ratios and cost of capital are typically the most sensitive. It should be noted that our fair values would change by a disproportionate factor if changes are made to any or all valuation assumptions, owing to the non-linear nature of the standard valuation models applied (mentioned above). As a consequence of the standard valuation models we apply, changes of 1-2 percentage points in any single valuation assumption can change the derived fair value by as much as 30% or more. All research is produced on an ad hoc basis and will be updated when the circumstances require it.

Marketing material

This research report should be considered marketing material, as it has been commissioned and paid for by the subject company, and has not been prepared in accordance with the regulations designed to promote the independence of investment research and it is not subject to any legal prohibition on dealing ahead of the dissemination of the report.
