Commissioned research: Suominen – Q4 EBITDA of EUR 5m misses estimates, guidance suggests improving earnings in 2023

Marketing material commissioned by Suominen

Suominen's Q4 comparable EBITDA of EUR 5m remained unchanged from previous quarter and missed consensus (Vara) estimate of EUR 6.9m, but cash flow was stronger than we anticipated owing to release of working capital. Guidance suggests improving earnings in 2023, which is well factored in consensus of EUR 37m for 2023 vs EUR 15m in 2022. Management suggests cost inflation has progressed past its peak, and that inventory situation in the US has normalized, which should offer building blocks for a recovery in earnings.

EBITDA of EUR 5m unchanged from previous quarter, cash flow stronger than expected

- Suominen reported Q4 22 comparable EBITDA of EUR 5.0m (consensus by Vara EUR 6.9m), as sales EUR 133m came in at EUR 133m, 5% below expectations.
- Cash flow from operations was stronger than we had anticipated, at EUR 15.6m (our estimate was EUR 12.2m). Suominen was able to release EUR 15m working capital during the quarter. As a result, net debt declined to EUR 54.6m (from EUR 65.8m in Q3), corresponding to net gearing of 0.37x.
- Dividend was proposed at EUR 0.10 per share, slightly above consensus expectation of EUR 0.08 per share.
- Suominen introduced guidance for this year, and foresees comparable EBITDA to increase in 2023 from EUR 15m in 2022 (cons EBITDA for 2023 is EUR 37m). For Suominen's cost inputs, raw material cost inflation finally turned in Q4 2022 and the energy markets show signs of price decline, according to the company. In the US market, the inventory levels have now receded to their normal levels, with some uncertainty regarding the impact of the current high consumer price inflation on consumer demand for wipes.

Risk information

The risk of investing in certain financial instruments, including those mentioned in this report, is generally high, as their market value is exposed to a lot of different factors such as the operational and financial conditions of the relevant company, growth prospects, change in interest rates, the economic and political environment, foreign exchange rates, shifts in market sentiments etc. Where an investment or security is denominated in a different currency to the investor's currency of reference, changes in rates of exchange may have an adverse effect on the value, price or income of or from that investment to the investor. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. Estimates of future performance are based on assumptions that may not be realized. When investing in individual shares, the investor may lose all or part of the investments.

Conflicts of interest

Readers of this document should note that Nordea Markets or Equity Sales & Research has received remuneration from the company mentioned in this document for the production of the report. The remuneration is not dependent on the content of the report.

Analyst Shareholding

Nordea Markets analysts do not hold shares in the companies that they cover. No holdings or other affiliations by analysts or associates.

Fair value and sensitivity

We calculate our fair values by weighting DCF, DDM, SOTP, asset-based and other standard valuation methods. Our fair values are sensitive to changes in valuation assumptions, of which growth, margins, tax rates, working capital ratios, investment-to-sales ratios and cost of capital are typically the most sensitive. It should be noted that our fair values would change by a disproportionate factor if changes are made to any or all valuation assumptions, owing to the non-linear nature of the standard valuation models applied (mentioned above). As a consequence of the standard valuation models we apply, changes of 1-2 percentage points in any single valuation assumption can change the derived fair value by as much as 30% or more. All research is produced on an ad hoc basis and will be updated when the circumstances require it.

Marketing material

This research report should be considered marketing material, as it has been commissioned and paid for by the subject company, and has not been prepared in accordance with the regulations designed to promote the independence of investment research and it is not subject to any legal prohibition on dealing ahead of the dissemination of the report. However, Nordea Markets analysts are according to internal policies not allowed to hold shares in the companies/sectors that they cover.
